

Trees (Ireland) Bill.

LORDS REASON

FOR INSISTING ON ONE OF THEIR AMENDMENTS TO WHICH THE COMMONS HAVE DISAGREED, WITH AN AMENDMENT
AND A
CONSEQUENTIAL AMENDMENT.

The Lords do not insist on their amendments in page 1, lines 14 and 15, to which the Commons have disagreed, but propose in lieu thereof the following consequential amendment :

Page 1, line 14, leave out from ("tenants") to ("in") in line 16 and insert ("as are under the said Act, or any Act amending it, entitled to plant and register timber").

The Lords insist on their amendment in page 2, line 1, to which the Commons have disagreed, for the following reason :

Because the insertion of the word ("and") is required to make the Bill consistent with the amendment now proposed in page 1, line 14.

The Lords agree to the amendment made by the Commons to the amendment made by the Lords in page 2, line 3, with the following amendment :

After ("improvements") insert ("if any").
